KEELER'S RECITAL

Charles Keeler gave his first recital of the season in the concert hall of the Alexander Young Hotel last night. Owing to the unfavorable weather conditions, however, the attendance was not as large as was expected. Among those present were Governor and Mrs. Frear and party.

The program submitted was a long one, and served to show the wonderful versatility of the composer. The first part comprised ten songs, all of a varied character. The second part was divided up into poems of a light nature. The first portion was entitled "Ring Around of Playtime," and included "Dedication," "Soap Bubbles," "The Baker Man," "My Auntie," "The Bear Hunter," and the "Braas Band." The second portion was entitled "Quips and Cranks," dealing with dolls, a baby and animals. The third section was Brown Baby Ballads, including "Six Little Eskimo," "The Mexican Babies," "The Little Plute," and "The Honolulu Boy." The second part was concluded by the rendering of "An Ocean Lullaby."

Part three was devoted to a wanderer's songs of the sea, including sailors' chancies and an invocation to the sea. The fourth part appealed to all those who have sailed through these southern seas. Australia was favored with three poems; New Zealand was recalled with one; Tahiti had "A Song for Little Mata." Honolulu was mentioned with a vivid description of a departing one's regrets and the scene at leaving. This part was completed with "The Voyage of Kupe," a Maori adventurer who discovered New Zealand.

The final part was composed of "The Master," in memory of the master musician, Henry Holmes; "To Leonard," on his first birthday and "The Chant of the Soul Triumphant." Notwithstanding the somewhat scattered audience, the poet did thorough justice to his works, and each rendering was received with applause. The entertainment was an artistic success.

The next reading will take place on Monday evening. Keeler leaves on his globe encircling tour by the Tenyo Maru on Tuesday next. He goes via the Orient.

TO DREDGE HARBOR AND FILL IN LANDS

The work of dredging the harbor by the American Standard Dredging Company between the channel and the Alakea wharves, will be begun immediately. The material brought up will be forced through a 16-inch pipe to the marshy lands near Fort Armstrong, and this will do away with a notorious breeding place for mosquitoes.

The pipe arrived on the Wilhelmina on Tuesday morning, and the work of making the trench is already in hand. The dredging of the harbor will, therefore, have further reaching effects than usual, for the sand, etc., drawn up will be utilized in a way that will get fine results, and increase the value of the land, as well as doing away with spots that must be eyesores to many, especially the military officials who are located in that district.

The Myrtle and Healan boat clubs will entertain hundreds of friends on Regatta Day.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY IS PAU

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—For the first time in many years it was almost impossible to buy or sell Standard Oil stock today in the New York market. No one had any idea what this stock, which yesterday sold at 63 1/4 a share, was worth.

Standard Oil of New Jersey passed out of existence as a trust stock yesterday, in accordance with the recent Supreme Court decision.

An attempt was made to trade in the old shares, attaching to the certificate agreements whereby the seller assigned all rights in subsidiaries to the buyer. On this basis stock was quoted at about yesterday's figures, but no business was done today.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey today passed out of existence, so far as its present form and functions are concerned.

After today this famous corporation will cease officially to carry on its operations as the head of a vast organization whose activities extend into almost every part of the world. In obedience to the decree of dissolution of the Supreme Court, it is relinquishing its control of the subsidiary concerns, and today was the date set for the ending of the old regime.

With the end of this business today, the company's books containing the list of stockholders were closed, and the stock of its subsidiary companies will be distributed among the stockholders in the parent organization of record at that time.

The work of apportioning the company's holdings of the stock of more than thirty subsidiaries affected will occupy at least three months, it is expected, so that the readjustment will not be completed before December 1.

Standard Oil was traded in today at about $625 per share, transactions being restricted to cash dealings. A bid of $310 a share for Standard Oil "ex-subsidaries," or without rights to participation in the distribution of subsidiaries, was made by a venturesome trader on the "curb," but as no intelligent appraisal can yet be made of the worth of the stock when divested of the outside holdings, the offer was not accepted.

The New Jersey company, in addition to acting as the holding corporation, conducts a large oil business and has extensive property holdings. The company, however, has never made a public report, and no opportunity has been afforded for gauging the value of its business and its tangible assets.

An official of the company said today that the only element of doubt as to the general effect of reorganization on the present stockholders lay in the ability of the constituent companies, operating independently to produce so large a total of profits as has been possible under the present form of management. As to whether this can be done, he said, only the future will disclose.

SALE OF SEATS FOR SOUSA'S BAND

In one of his fluent generalizations John Ruskin tells us that "all good art has the capacity of pleasing. There is no law against its pleasing. On the contrary, there is something wrong either in the spectator or in the art when it ceases to please." The secret of the great success of John Philip Sousa is that his famous band plays music for the million. Sousa as a conductor is merry and bright. His mission in life as a bandmaster is to please the public. With this end in view "The March King" is careful never to have more than two or three serious numbers on his program. Sousa believes that music was intended to make us cheerful, and he has the courage to act up to his belief.

He amuses his audience while he is winning their admiration, and he sends the patrons of his concerts home not only in good humor, but with a feeling of satisfaction. His programs are most eclectic and his band is so well trained that the musicians find no difficulty in making the transition from Liszt's "Preludes" or Strauss's "Till Eulenspiegel" to one of Sousa's inspiring marches. The engagement of Sousa and his band is announced for Tuesday, September 12, at the Bijou theater. Seats go on sale for the matinee concert at Bergstrom's Music Company tomorrow morning at nine o'clock.

If arrangements can be made for an evening concert, tickets will go on sale for same Monday morning, September 11, at nine o'clock.

Refreshing As a Night's Sleep

One of the best things about Stearns' Headache Wafers is that they not only cure the headache quickly, but leave your head "as clear as a bell." The heavy, drugging feeling that follows the use of most headache remedies is wholly unknown to users of

Stearns' Headache Wafers

Many people say "they are refreshing as a night's sleep" for they simply drive away the pain, leaving the head normally at ease.

You can depend upon Stearns' Headache Wafers just as millions of others have done for years; and they relieve not only headaches but many other kinds of pain; yet they are and always have been free from opiates, morphine, chloral and other habit-forming drugs.

After one trial you will know that these tiny, tasteless snow-white wafers should always be kept at hand. Be sure to get STEARNS'—the genuine.
